INSTITUTIONAL DISTINCTIVENESS 2017-2018

7.3.1 Describe/Explain the performance of the institution in one area distinctive to its Vision, Priority and Thrust.

“Character lies in the will and not only in the intellect”.

Higher Educational Institutions are entrusted with the character building of individuals where quality sustenance and role play are vital.

INCLUDING THE EXCLUDING ONES :

Emphasizing and inculcating this blend the institute strives towards reaching to so far left behind. The institute provides special training and counseling apart from the mentor-mentee system to the students who are married or parent to the child to ensure the gaps are built. These students are counseled from time to time to ensure improved socio-economic freedom and decision-making ability. These small deeds are directed with the larger vision to reduce the unsaid domestic violence rattling in every corner of the country. Again, focusing on the niche area, the institute is blessed with the availability of apt resources that are directed towards serving the differently-abled stakeholders by conducting workshops, installing braille software, formation of cells and most importantly recruiting them at the institute. (Assistant Prof Ramdas Yede). This helped the team to confront to the ground-level challenges faced by them and put into practice what we preach and not just words.
