REPORT

Department of Botany

Event: “Beach Cleaning Program”

Date: 26 July 2018.

Venue: Shirgoan Beach, Palghar

Timing: 8:00 am to 10:30 am

Highlight:

The Botany department of Sonopant Dandekar College, Palghar had attended the “Beach Cleaning Program” on the occasion of International Mangrove Day dated 26.7.18.” This program aimed to transform mangrove conservation into a collaborative effort. The primary objective was to encourage students and the local community towards environment sensitisation and the need to maintain ecological balance. The beach being one of the popular spots is often left with garbage and waste materials to make everyone conscious of the same, this activity was carried upon. During this activity, 22 students of Botany participated in this activity that was divided into 2 teams, where 11 students were at the entry point and 11 were at the beach site. Students enthusiastically participated in this activity. The activity commenced at 8:00 am and it was finished by 10:30 am. All the students were provided refreshments.
