Report on Hindi Literature Books Exhibition on the Occasion of Hindi Bhasha Din

Goal:

The Hindi Literature Books Exhibition's main goal was to promote the study and enjoyment of Hindi literature to pay tribute to Hindi Bhasha Din. The Hindi bhasha din is celebrated on 14th September but the exhibition was organized on 19th September 2019. The exhibition aimed to provide a venue for educators, language lovers, and students to interact with the richness and variety of Hindi literary works.

In context:

The R. H. Save Library arranged a beautiful display showcasing the diverse body of Hindi literature in honour of Hindi Bhasha Din on 19th September 2019. The purpose of the celebration was to honour the value of Hindi as a language and highlight the various literary works produced by well-known Hindi writers, poets, and academics.

The library showcased a curated collection of Hindi literary masterpieces, including works of renowned poets, novelists, essayists, and playwrights.

Outcomes:

The cultural and literary legacy of the Hindi language was successfully recognised at the Hindi Literature Books Exhibition, which was held in honour of Hindi Bhasha Din on
