REPORT

On January 31, 2021, in commemoration of Subhas Chandra Bose Jayanti, the NSS volunteers and program officers convened at Amalan Student Rest on the college campus to celebrate the occasion. The event was marked by various activities aimed at honouring the legacy of Subhas Chandra Bose. Speeches were delivered, providing insights into Bose's life, contributions, and ideals, inspiring attendees with his dedication to the cause of India's freedom struggle. Additionally, guidance sessions were conducted, emphasizing Bose's leadership qualities and the importance of emulating his principles of courage and determination. A cleanliness campaign was also organized as a tribute to Bose's commitment to cleanliness and hygiene. The event served as a platform for NSS volunteers and program officers to reflect on Bose's immense contributions to the nation and reaffirm their commitment to upholding his values. Overall, the Subhas Chandra Bose Jayanti celebration was a meaningful and inspiring event that highlighted Bose's enduring legacy and motivated attendees to strive for excellence and service to the nation.

Dr. Rohit Gaikwad
NSS Program Officer
