

ENCOURAGING READING

The Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension organized this program with the common goal of inspiring and promoting a lifelong love of reading among participants of DLLE. Reading can awaken imagination, empathy, and creativity, whether via the magic of storytelling, the excitement of adventure, or the pursuit of knowledge.

❖ Objective:

- The objective of the seminar on Encouraging Reading about the resources, services, and benefits offered by the library, promote a culture of reading & research, and enhance information literacy skills among attendees.

❖ Outcomes:

- The seminar will emphasize the importance of reading and encourage participants to develop a reading habit. They will be introduced to different genres of finding books that match their interests and academic needs.
- The seminar will focus on developing participants' information literacy skills, including critically evaluating information sources, conducting effective searches, and citing and referencing information appropriately. Participants will learn how to navigate databases, use search strategies, and differentiate between credible and unreliable sources.
