OBJECTIVES OF THE ACTIVITY

1. To encourage youth participation in the electoral process.
2. To emphasize the Right to Vote as a fundamental right.
3. To highlight voting as both a right and responsibility of Indian citizens.
4. To foster a commitment to participate in the voting process through pledging.
5. To promote scrutiny of candidates before voting.
6. To create awareness and encourage voting process participation among family and friends.

Outcomes:

1. Increased youth engagement in elections, demonstrating a deeper understanding of civic duty and democracy.
2. Greater recognition of the Right to Vote as an essential democratic principle, leading to increased voter turnout.
3. Enhanced understanding of citizenship responsibilities, resulting in more active participation in the electoral process.
4. Adoption of a pledge to vote in future elections, showcasing a dedication to democratic participation.
5. Improved informed decision-making in voting through candidate scrutiny, promoting electoral accountability.
6. Heightened awareness and promotion of voting process participation within communities, fostering a culture of civic engagement and voter empowerment.

NSS Program Officer,

REPORT

The NSS unit of our college organized a special program on January 25, 2022, to commemorate National Voters Day and raise awareness about the significance of voting in a democracy. Under the coordination of NSS Program Officers Dr. Rohit Gaikwad, Prof. Raju Tandel, Prof. Arundhati Barde, and Dr. Sangita Thakur, the event was conducted with enthusiasm and purpose. Principal Dr. Kiran Save led the oath ceremony, emphasizing the importance of voting as a cornerstone of democratic participation. The presence of Dr. Tanaji Pol, Vice-Principal also added to the significance of the event. Through this initiative, the NSS unit aimed to instill a sense of civic responsibility and encourage active participation in the electoral process among students and faculty members. The ceremony served as a reminder of the power of democracy and the role each citizen plays in shaping the future of our nation.
