REPORT

Tanmay Dnyaneshwar Patil, a second-year National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteer from our college, actively participated in the seven-day state-level camp held at Sindhudurg from December 2, 2018, to December 8, 2018. This report aims to highlight Tanmay's engagement and contributions during the camp.

The seven-day state-level camp in Sindhudurg brought together NSS volunteers from various colleges nationwide. The camp aimed to provide participants with opportunities for leadership development, skill enhancement, community engagement, and cultural exchange.

He enthusiastically participated in all activities and demonstrated exemplary commitment and enthusiasm throughout the camp. His contributions and engagement during various sessions and activities were commendable.

His participation in the seven-day state-level camp at Sindhudurg was highly commendable. His active engagement, leadership qualities, and commitment to community service exemplify the core values of the NSS. Participation in such camps enhances his personal growth and contributes positively to the larger goal of societal development and youth empowerment.
