Title of the Activity/Event/Practice: Marathon Organized by District Collectorate, Palghar

Objectives:

- To promote fitness and a healthy lifestyle by participating in such events and maintaining fitness levels.
- To celebrate India's Independence by participating in the marathon and pay homage to the freedom fighters.
- To build teamwork and leadership skills are required for participation in a marathon. Cadets can learn to work together and motivate each other to complete the marathon successfully.
- To support community events by participating in them develop a sense of responsibility towards the community and foster a spirit of social service.

Context: Celebrating Aazadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav.

Practice:

The NCC Cadets gave their assistance in regulating traffic during the run and provided necessary help to the marathoners. Some of the cadets participated in marathons. Cadets wholeheartedly and enthusiastically completed the task assigned to them. The marathon started from the Collector's office at 6.15am.

Outcomes:

- Participation in a marathon encouraged NCC cadets to focus on their physical fitness and develop a healthier lifestyle.
- Participation in the marathon provided an opportunity for NCC cadets to showcase their discipline and leadership skills by adhering to rules and regulations, and motivating and encouraging their fellow team members.

- The marathon being arranged on Aazadi ka Amrut Mahotsav helped create awareness among the participants and the public about the significance of the event.
