Event Objectives –

- Offering Historical Understanding: To provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the journey of Indian democracy in the post-independence era, including the key events, milestones, and challenges faced during this period.
- Promoting Critical Thinking: To facilitate a discussion on the challenges faced by Indian democracy in the post-independence era, such as poverty, inequality, corruption, communalism, and regional disparities. Participants will critically analyze these challenges and their implications for the democratic fabric of the nation.
- Reflecting on Indian Democracy: To explore the significance of India's diverse social, cultural, and religious fabric in the context of democracy. Participants will reflect on the importance of inclusivity, tolerance, and respect for diversity in building and sustaining a robust democratic society.

- Exposure to Diverse Perspectives: To expose them to diverse takes on Indian democracy with the help of comparative analysis of democracies around the world.
- Inspiration for Further Study: To stimulate participants' interest in studying and researching the subject of Indian democracy, including its historical, political, and sociological dimensions. This objective aims to foster a continued pursuit of knowledge and critical thinking in the field of democracy and governance.
- Promoting Civic Engagement: To encourage participants to actively engage in the democratic process by exercising their rights and responsibilities as citizens. This includes promoting voter awareness, civic participation, and advocacy for social and political change.

Learning Outcomes –

- Knowledge of Historical Context: The program helped the students understand the historical context of Indian democracy and develop a holistic understanding of the topic
- Understanding of Democratic Principles and Institutions: The program helped them to evaluate and comprehend the democratic principles of liberty, equality, fraternity and justice as well as the four pillars of our democracy i.e. parliament, executive, judiciary and media
- Reflecting on Indian Democracy: The program helped the students to reflect on Indian Democracy with the current concerns and critically analyze the challenges and successes including issues like corruption, communalism, intolerance, caste-based discrimination, poverty, and economic development.
- Appreciation of Diversity and Inclusivity: The program unfolded the much celebrated diversity of Indian democracy while at the same time expressed the concerns over the inclusivity, tolerance and representation of marginalized communities.
- Critical Thinking and Comparative Analysis: The program also enabled the students to examine different perspectives on Indian democracy in post-independence era and addressed its strengths, weaknesses and future prospects as well as it encouraged them to compare and contrast the Indian democratic system with other democracies around the world.
- Civic Engagement and Participation: As a take-away from the program, the students took with them a sense of civic responsibility while understanding the importance of active participation in democratic processes, engagement in constructive dialogue, vote, and contribute to the betterment of society.
