Report of Anti-AIDS Rally

Palghar Rural Hospital approached College authorities to organise an 'Anti-AIDS Rally' on 1 September 2018. Students from different faculties, NSS volunteers, NCC cadets, and DLLE students assembled at Rural Hospital Palghar. Students from different colleges and schools were also gathered for the rally. Medical officers of the hospital arranged a small program on the hospital premises. The Chief Medical officer explained the current statistics of HIV/AIDS. He said youths are getting more infected by the disease. He further added that there is a dire need to spread the awareness of the AIDS. Later rally was organised in different parts of the city. Students were holding posters with slogans to spread awareness about HIV/AIDS.
