OBJECTIVES OF THE ACTIVITY

- 1. Skill Development: Residential camps often provide opportunities for participants to learn and develop various skills. These can include outdoor skills like camping, hiking, and survival skills, as well as artistic skills like painting, music, or acting. The camp may also focus on specific areas such as leadership, teamwork, or problem-solving.
- 2. Personal Growth: Camps often strive to foster personal growth in participants. This can include building self-confidence, developing resilience, improving communication skills, enhancing independence, and promoting a sense of responsibility. Residential camps provide an environment that encourages personal exploration and self-discovery.
- 3. To interact and bond with their peers in a structured and supportive environment. Camps foster social skills such as cooperation, empathy, and conflict resolution. Participants learn to work together as a team and develop lasting friendships.
- 4. Cultural Exchange and Diversity: Some residential camps focus on promoting cultural exchange and diversity. They provide opportunities for participants from different backgrounds and cultures to come together, share their experiences, and learn from one another. This helps foster tolerance, understanding, and appreciation for different perspectives.
- 5. Nature and Environmental Awareness: Many residential camps are set in natural surroundings, such as forests, mountains, or lakes. These camps aim to promote environmental awareness and a connection to nature. Participants learn about ecological systems, sustainability practices, and the importance of preserving the environment.

Report on Special Residential Camp 2019-20

Seven days Special residential camp of National Service Scheme had been organized at Katale from 25th December to 31st December 2019. About 150 volunteers along with 3 programme officers and sub-staff attended the camp. Various projects and different activities on cleanliness drive, electricity and water conservation, tree conservation and an anti-plastic campaign had been conducted. Volunteers painted ZP School and decorated the school.

For the overall development of volunteer's eminent resource persons had been invited from different fields. Mr. Pankaj Raut & Mr. Neeraj Raut gave guidance on career opportunities. Secretary Prof. Ashok Thakur explained the need for development. Mr. Jagdish Sansare talked on the role the street plays in social reforms. Mr. Sakharam Dakhore mentioned the need for hard work for success. Mr. Manohar Patil explained the role of Marathi literature in the art of living. Mr. Sudhir Dandekar elaborated on the importance of reading and its role in personality development. Competitions like elocution, extempore, story writing, quiz, debate and business planning were organized in the camp.

Residential camp concluded with a campfire on the night of 30th December 2019. Gram panchayat Katale co-camp completed wholeheartedly. Sarpanch Mr. Sunil Pawar, Mrs. Manisha Patil and Mr. Vijay Patil attended the campfire. NSS coordinator of University of Mumbai Mr. Babasaheb Bidve attended the campfire and guided the volunteers.
