Title of the Activity/Event/Practice: Swachta AbhiyanObjectives of the Practice:

- To raise people's consciousness of the value of cleanliness and hygiene.
- To motivate people to actively take part in the cleanliness campaign and create clean, green spaces around them.
- To encourage the usage of trash cans and source-based waste separation.
- To encourage the use of toilets and raise awareness of the negative impacts of open defecation.

Context: Government of India initiative Swachhata Abhiyan.

Practice:

NCC Cadets carried out a Swachta Abhiyan from SD College Palghar to Talavpada, a nearby area of the college. Cadets picked up garbage, and plastic in the area. While doing the activity they interacted with people making them aware of the environment, their attitude towards it, and practicing the adoption. Cadets made people aware of sanitation and hygiene and the importance of cleanliness.

The activity was done under the guidance of ANO Lt. Anagha Padhye-Deshmukh.

Outcomes:

- Improved health and hygiene: Swachhata Abhiyan promoted cleanliness and hygiene, which led to improved public health.
- Environmental sustainability: Swachhata Abhiyan reduced waste and promoted environmental sustainability.
- Community involvement: Swachhata Abhiyan encouraged community involvement and participation, and helped to create a sense of responsibility and ownership among people towards their environment. It also encouraged people to work together towards a common goal, fostering a sense of community spirit and unity.
