CLEANLINESS CAMPAIGN IN LALTHANE ASHRAM SCHOOL PREMISES

Date of Event: 24th December 2022

The student volunteers of the National Service Scheme of the College gathered at the college at 12 noon to go to the camp at Lalthane reached by S.T. bus in Lalthane Ashram School on the first day, students were grouped and, in the evening, the area near the Ashram School was cleaned.

Objectives of the Activity:

- 1. To encourage NSS students to take an active role in maintaining cleanliness fosters a sense of civic duty and responsibility towards their school and community.
- 2. Engaging NSS students in the campaign allows them to interact with the local community, fostering positive relationships and promoting a sense of belonging and responsibility.

Brief Report

The student volunteers of the National Service Scheme (NSS) of our college gathered at the college premises at 12 noon to go to a camp at Lalthane Ashram School. The journey to Lalthane was facilitated by an S.T. bus, ensuring safe and efficient transportation for all participants.

Upon arrival at Lalthane Ashram School, students were grouped according to the planned activities. The primary objective of the day's activity was to engage NSS students in a cleanliness campaign within the vicinity of the Ashram School. Throughout the evening, the area surrounding the school was meticulously cleaned, with students actively participating in this endeavor.

Outcomes of the Activity:

1. The campaign led to a cleaner and more hygienic school environment, creating a conducive atmosphere for learning and personal development

2. NSS students and the wider school community became more aware of the importance of cleanliness, hygiene, and environmental conservation, leading to a greater sense of responsibility towards maintaining a clean environment.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. Rohit Gaikwad,

NSS Program Officer,

Sonopant Dandekar College
