Title: Gender Sensitization Workshop: Promoting Understanding and Respect

Introduction:

The Gender Sensitization Workshop aimed to cultivate a deeper understanding of gender-related issues and foster respect for diverse gender identities and expressions. Through interactive sessions, discussions, and awareness-building activities, the workshop sought to promote empathy, challenge biases, and create a more inclusive environment within our community.

Workshop Objectives:

1. Increase awareness and understanding of gender diversity and its significance in social contexts.
2. Challenge stereotypes and biases related to gender roles and expectations.
3. Promote respectful and inclusive communication and behavior towards individuals of all gender identities.
4. Provide tools and strategies for creating gender-sensitive spaces and interactions.

Workshop Activities and Sessions:

1. Gender Basics: Covered fundamental concepts such as gender identity, gender expression, and the difference between sex and gender through interactive presentations and discussions.
2. Unconscious Bias Training: Facilitated activities and discussions to help participants recognize and address unconscious biases related to gender.
3. Role-playing Exercises: Engaged participants in role-playing scenarios to explore challenges faced by individuals of different genders in various social and professional settings.
4. Case Studies and Reflection: Analyzed real-life case studies highlighting gender-related issues and encouraged participants to reflect on their own attitudes and behaviors.
5. Communication Skills: Provided guidance on using inclusive language and communication strategies to create a welcoming and respectful environment for people of all genders.

6. Action Planning: Facilitated group discussions to develop action plans for implementing gender-sensitive practices in participants' personal and professional lives.

Outcomes and Impact:

1. Increased Awareness: Participants gained a deeper understanding of gender diversity and the importance of creating inclusive spaces.

2. Attitude Shifts: Many participants reported a shift in attitudes towards challenging stereotypes and biases, expressing a commitment to promoting gender equality.

3. Improved Communication: Participants developed skills and strategies for communicating respectfully and inclusively with individuals of diverse gender identities.

4. Behavior Change: Several participants reported changes in their behaviors and interactions, such as using inclusive language and challenging discriminatory attitudes.

5. Institutional Impact: Participants expressed a desire to advocate for gender-sensitive policies and practices within their organizations and communities.

Challenges and Lessons Learned:

1. Resistance and Defensiveness: Some participants initially demonstrated resistance or defensiveness when confronted with their own biases, highlighting the need for patience and empathy in facilitating discussions.

2. Cultural Sensitivity: Recognizing the cultural context of gender norms and practices was crucial for promoting understanding and respect across diverse communities.

3. Continued Education: Participants emphasized the importance of ongoing education and dialogue to sustain the momentum generated by the workshop and effect long-term change.

Conclusion:

The Gender Sensitization Workshop served as a valuable platform for promoting understanding, empathy, and respect for diverse gender identities and experiences. By challenging biases, fostering communication skills, and inspiring action, the workshop contributed to creating more inclusive and equitable

Empowering Women Seminar: Shaping Tomorrow's Society with Gender Equality

Introduction:

The Empowering Women Seminar aimed to highlight the pivotal role of women in shaping the future of society and the importance of gender equality in achieving this vision. Through insightful discussions, interactive sessions, and empowerment activities, the seminar aimed to inspire and equip participants to embrace change and advocate for women's rights and leadership in all spheres of life.

Seminar Objectives:

Raise awareness about the significant contributions of women to society and the barriers they face.

Inspire women to embrace their potential as agents of change and leaders in various fields.

Educate participants about the importance of gender equality and the benefits of women's empowerment for societal progress.

Provide tools, resources, and support for advancing gender equality and women's rights.

Seminar Activities and Sessions:

Keynote Addresses: Invited influential speakers, including successful women leaders, activists, and change-makers, to share their experiences, insights, and strategies for overcoming obstacles and driving positive change.

Panel Discussions: Facilitated panel discussions on topics such as women's representation in leadership, gender equality in the workplace, and challenges faced by women in different sectors. Encouraged dialogue and knowledge-sharing among participants.

Skills Workshops: Conducted workshops focused on skill-building and leadership development, covering topics such as assertive communication, negotiation skills, and personal branding.

Mentorship Sessions: Paired participants with mentors from diverse backgrounds and professions to provide guidance, support, and networking opportunities for career advancement.

Storytelling and Empowerment Exercises: Encouraged participants to share their personal stories, aspirations, and challenges, fostering a sense of solidarity and empowerment among attendees.

Advocacy and Action Planning: Facilitated sessions to discuss advocacy strategies and action plans for promoting women's rights, gender equality, and women's leadership in participants' communities and workplaces.

Outcomes and Impact:

Empowerment: Participants reported feeling inspired, empowered, and motivated to take action towards advancing women's rights and leadership.

Networking and Collaboration: The seminar provided valuable networking opportunities, fostering collaborations and partnerships among participants to support each other's initiatives and projects.

Skill Development: Participants acquired new skills, knowledge, and tools to enhance their leadership abilities, navigate challenges, and advocate for gender equality effectively.

Awareness and Advocacy: The seminar raised awareness about the importance of women's empowerment and gender equality, sparking conversations and advocacy efforts within participants' spheres of influence.

Community Building: The seminar created a supportive and inclusive community where women could connect, learn from each other, and amplify their voices for positive change.

Challenges and Lessons Learned:

Intersectionality: Recognizing the intersecting identities and experiences of women from diverse backgrounds, including race, ethnicity, class, and sexuality, was essential for fostering inclusivity and addressing systemic inequalities.

Sustainable Engagement: Sustaining momentum and engagement beyond the seminar required ongoing support, resources, and follow-up activities to reinforce learning and action.

Ally ship and Inclusion: Engaging men and other allies in conversations and actions to support women's empowerment and gender equality was critical for driving systemic change and fostering inclusive environments.

Conclusion:

The Empowering Women Seminar served as a catalyst for empowerment, inspiration, and collective action towards achieving gender equality and women's leadership. By celebrating women's contributions, providing skills and support, and fostering collaboration and advocacy, the seminar contributed to building a more inclusive, equitable, and resilient society where all individuals have the opportunity to thrive and contribute to shaping the future.

Mrs. Seema Deshmukh
Convener WDC

Objectives of the Guest Talk:

1. To make girl students aware of major laws regarding women.
2. To make girl students aware about the power these laws have given them.
3. To be of aware of the subtle injustice, inequality and discrimination meted against women in patriarchal set up.

Learning Outcomes:

At the end of the talk women should know

1. The power women laws have bestowed on them.
2. To build confidence among themselves to face the adversity
3. That knowledge is power

Report of Guest Lecture on “Women Empowerment and Role of Law in India”

Firstly, convener Mrs. Seema Deshmukh welcomed the audience and briefly introduced functioning of WDC and ICC. She also explained the purpose of organising this talk. Later Dr. Arundhati Barde introduced the chief guest and handed over the session to Dr. Payal. First she briefly introduced major laws regarding women. Then she related them with the power these laws have given to women against the injustice. She explained the laws and its implementation with particular cases. She also stated that sometimes it's difficult to take help of law in patriarchal setup. She also stated the fact that many educated women are also less aware of the power laws have given them. The program was concluded with Vote of Thanks by Dr. Yogesh Kulkarni.

This guest lecture was supported and guided by Dr. Kiran J. Save (Principal), advised by Prof. Mahesh Deshmukh (IQAC Co-Ordinator & Vice Principal) and Dr. Tanaji Pol (Vice-Principal). The lecture was a great success with 120 participants.

REPORT

The 6th Mahila Sahitya Samelan, organized by the Konkan Marathi Literature Parishad, unfolded with grandeur and intellectual fervor at Dandekar College Palghar on June 11th and 12th, 2022. The event, aimed at celebrating and promoting women's literature and voices, saw enthusiastic participation from students and faculty alike. Noteworthy contributions were made by students such as Yash Kadu, Mamta Rajput, Isha Thakur, Manisha Jaiswal, Utkarsha Mhatre, alongside other dedicated student volunteers. Their active involvement and keen interest in the literary discourse added vibrancy to the proceedings. Supported by esteemed professors Bhushan Bhoir, Raju Tandel, and Dr. Rohit Gaikwad, the event transcended boundaries of academia, fostering an inclusive platform for dialogue and exchange of ideas. Through engaging discussions, insightful presentations, and literary performances, attendees were immersed in the rich tapestry of Marathi literature, particularly highlighting the contributions of women writers. The Mahila Sahitya Sammelan served as a testament to the power of literature in shaping perspectives, fostering empathy, and empowering voices from diverse backgrounds. As the curtains drew to a close, the echoes of inspiration and camaraderie reverberated throughout the college campus, leaving a lasting impact on all who participated.

Date : 27 December 2022

On 27 December 2022, a lecture on Patriarchy and Gender Sensation at 06 pm. by Akshay Mere event organized by NSS Unit of College for NSS volunteers.

Objectives of the Activity

1. To raise awareness about the concept of patriarchy and its impact on gender roles, relationships, and societal structures.
2. To understand about the root causes and manifestations of patriarchy, including its effects on gender equality, discrimination, and violence.

Outcomes of the Activity

1. NSS volunteers gain a deeper understanding of the concept of patriarchy and its impact on gender dynamics, recognizing its manifestations in various aspects of society.
2. The lecture fosters dialogue and discussion among NSS volunteers about patriarchy and gender issues, creating a supportive environment for sharing experiences, perspectives, and solutions.

Brief Report

On December 27, 2022, the NSS Unit of Sonopant Dandekar College, Palghar organized a lecture on "Patriarchy and Gender Sensation" for NSS volunteers. The lecture aimed to increase awareness and understanding of patriarchy and its impact on gender dynamics among the volunteers.

The lecture was delivered by Mr. Akshay Mere, a renowned speaker and advocate for gender equality. Mr. Mere began by providing an overview of patriarchy, defining it as a system of social organization that privileges men and subordinates' women. He discussed how patriarchy manifests in various aspects of society, including family, education, politics, and the workplace.

Throughout the lecture, Mr. Mere engaged the audience with thought-provoking questions, interactive activities, and real-life examples to illustrate the concepts being discussed. He emphasized the importance of recognizing and challenging patriarchal norms and behaviors to create a more equitable and inclusive society.

The lecture also addressed the intersectionality of patriarchy with other forms of oppression, such as race, class, sexuality, and ability. Mr. Mere highlighted the interconnectedness of social identities and systems of power, emphasizing the need for an intersectional approach to addressing gender inequality.

LGBTQ: The Rise of Third Gender and Struggle for Societal Acceptance

ABSTRACT

A person's gender identity will be same as or different from their birth. Gender identity is each person's internal and individual choice of gender. The LGBTQ community people faces many problems like they are sexually assaulted, physically attacked and extreme violence when compared to heterosexual peers. Within the LGBTQ community our project exclusively focuses on the TRANSGENDER community. Recently in India Prachi Rathod transgender became a government doctor. Naaz Joshi is India's first transgender International Beauty Queen. The purpose is to find out where transgender community stands in the newly formed Palghar District in the state of Maharashtra.

Objectives

- To create safe and inclusive educational/ work environment.
- Make efforts to ensure safe accommodation for LGBTQ community.
- To give them that respect, Dignity, and Equality which is given to heterosexual society.
- Differences adolescence girls and boys on attitude towards lesbian and gay people.

Methodology

Secondary Data

1. We have gathered some information with the help of research papers available on Google websites.
2. We also referred to some articles regarding LGBTQ of well known newspapers like TOI.

Primary Data

1. We have completed 364 responses on this project survey.
2. Interaction with the Transgender community in Palghar area.

LIMITATIONS OF THE STUDY

- Study was limited to the Palghar Area.
- Study is taken only for specified age group such as 18-25, 25-30, 30-40 & 40 above.
- The main reason behind this is to get equal amount of Employment & Education rights for LGBTQ.
- To make youth understand to support the LGBTQ Organization with positive attitude.
- The reason behind why to made them feel unwelcome at a place of worship.

Do you agree with the decision of court regarding enforcement of Transgender Person's Right Act 2019 ?

Response	Percentage
Agree	77%
Disagree	17%
Not Sure	6%

Is being LGBTQ a disorder or disease ?

Response	Percentage
Disorder	87%
Disease	11%
None	2%
Not about the person	0%
Not a feeling	0%
Not clear	0%

CONCLUSION

- The research basically xends at the conclusion that people are aware and not ashamed of their sexuality.
- Also majority of people agree that LGBTQ community people should get equal rights , opportunities, respect, and dignity.
- The positive responses of people on the question that is there really a need for third gender? shows that people are accepting them and are willing change the stereotypes of there should be only two genders
