About the event-

Sonopant Dandekar College, Palghar and the Office of the Joint Director, Higher Education, Konkan Division, Panvel jointly organized a one-day National Online Workshop on "E-Content Development & Intellectual Property Rights" on 27th April 2020. This National level Online Workshop was organized to adapt to the rapid changes in the teaching method based on creativity and innovative knowledge. Mr Ganesh Higmare acted as a resource person for the session on Intellectual Property Rights while Mr Vishwanath provided demonstrations on e-content development tools. On this occasion President of Sonopant Dandekar Shikshan Mandali, Adv. G.D. Tiwari appreciated the successful organization and conduction of this online national workshop and hoped that the college would reach out to more and more people with the help of such modern techniques. Following the protocol, the opening remarks as delivered by Principal Dr Kiran Save asserted that despite the current crisis (COVID 19 pandemic) they would strive hard to raise the bar for students and teachers by strengthening the efforts towards STEM-based education by blending technology into curriculum effectively and efficiently. The Joint Director of the Konkan Department of Higher Education, Dr. Sanjay Jagtap appreciated the initiative taken by Sonopant Dandekar College and appealed to teachers to use the same innovative technology as a supplement. The entire workshop was hosted by IQAC Coordinator Mr Mahesh Deshmukh. To emphasize the need and importance of envisioning intellectual property rights as an indispensable part of the research the resource persons highlighted the fact that most of the world's patents (Intellectual Property) are obtained by Indian researchers but from other countries. The brain drain is high in this arena. He added that there are numerous career opportunities in the field of intellectual property and teachers, researchers, students and educational institutions should take advantage of it in the field of education too and not just limited to science and technology. The program recorded successful participation and attendance of more than 1100 participants from varied demographic and occupational profiles. Members of the Senate, Governing Body, Directors of various Universities Departments, Principals, Teachers and Students from various colleges participated. The National Workshop also witnessed participation from Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Gujarat, Jammu and Kashmir, Delhi and Maharashtra, thus touching the four corners of the country. The positive feedback so collected further motivated the organizing team to address the needs of various stakeholders that led to the organization of various competitions and need based workshops aligning education with e-content development and dissemination.

In 1st sem of IPR Madam was conducted lecture very nicely but in second sem it was not satisfactory. I think such course should be always conducted as offline mode not online & it is less helpful for chemistry students.

because we want a job as a chemist in chemical industry.

We attended some IPR lecture but we didn't understand anything about IPR lecture, because they used to show 60 & 70 slides at a time and they did not provide us any notes, so we don't know what exactly is in it. Their network connection was also not secure. we don't think IPR is of any use or will be... after second installment only few lectures are taken by them and they have taken one lecture only 40 m because of they didn't provide any notes we feel that they repeat same topic again and again. After sharing that lecture link, he used to join himself in half an hour. This course is not so satisfactory.
